OUSD Superintendent Announces All Schools Will Remain Closed for Rest of 2019-20 School Year

OUSD Superintendent L. Karen Monroe announced Wednesday that all schools will remain closed for the remainder of the 2019-20 school year due to the spread of COVID-19.

"I am deeply concerned about the health and well-being of our students, families and employees," Monroe said in a statement. "The health and safety of our community is our top priority.

"We will continue to follow the guidance of health and public health officials as we move forward."

The announcement comes after the Governor's Office announced a State of Emergency on Monday.

"We will keep the community informed as we move forward," Monroe said.

Schools remain closed through the end of the 2019-20 school year.

"We will keep the community informed as we move forward," Monroe said.
